

Measuring the Impact and Sustainability of A Community Based Child Protection Approach in Prevention of Violence Against Children

The 20-year armed conflict in northern Uganda eroded the traditional social protective safety nets and community cohesion that hitherto, ensured the protection of children from abuse and violence.

- Measuring the Impact and Sustainability of A Community Based Child Protection Approach in Prevention of Violence Against Children

Measuring the Impact and Sustainability of A Community Based Child Protection Approach in Prevention of Violence Against Children

Measuring the Impact and Sustainability of A Community Based Child Protection Approach in Prevention of Violence Against Children

IN A POST-CONFLICT SETTING IN NORTHERN UGANDA

Report

AUGUST 2022

ChildFund
Uganda

The Evaluation Fund
Reducing Violence Against Children

AfriChild
Research. Policy. Impact.
The Centre for the study of the African Child

Title: Measuring the Impact and Sustainability of A Community-Based Child Protection Approach in the Prevention of Violence Against Children

Author (s): The AfriChild Centre and ChildFund International Uganda

Year of Publication: 2022

Access Resource Here: