

National Integrated Early Childhood Policy

Integrated Early Childhood Development (IECD) is a comprehensive approach for children from conception to eight years of age, their parents and caregivers purposely to help the child grow and thrive physically, mentally, emotionally, spiritually, morally and socially.

- National Integrated Early Childhood Development Policy of Uganda

National Integrated Early Childhood Development Policy of Uganda

Title: National Integrated Early Childhood Development Policy of Uganda

Author (s): Ministry of Gender, Labour and Social Development and The AfriChild Centre

Year of Publication: August 2016

Access Resource Here: